

Behaviour	Expectations	Pyramid of Interventions for Infractions
Attendance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students will attend school all possible days. Students will check in at front reception with parent verification if they are late. Parents will ensure that students attend school; in the event a child is absent for a legitimate reason (ie. appointment, illness) the parents will notify the school by phone or email. School staff will take attendance and communicate with parents in the event that there are any concerns. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parents will be notified by school staff in the event that a child is absent and not verified. After 10 unjustified absences, an administrator will send a letter of concern home and put in student file. If a student is absent 10 consecutive days in a row a letter of concern is sent to the parent and Youth Protection. A letter may be sent if the school is concerned about any number of absences. A student who continues to be absent and is not justified will have a plan-of-action meeting with school team, parent/guardian and student. A student truant from class will receive an In School Suspension.
Arrival to Class and Class Dismissal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students will be in class and prepared to work (ie. sitting at their assigned location, with their required materials) before the bell rings to begin class. School staff will keep records of class lates. The teacher dismisses students at the bell. The bell is a reminder. There will be Bell to Bell learning 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A student who is late (non-verified) for class will be assigned an ISS If the student continues to be late, they may be sent home and will be required to return with his/her parent(s) to develop a plan.
Bullying (physical, emotional, cyber)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students will behave appropriately, respecting individual differences and diversity. They will report and inform (parents/guardians, school staff, friends) if they are being bullied or if they see someone else being bullied. Students will help someone who is being bullied by taking a stand – reporting and supporting. Parents will watch for signs that their child may be the victim of bullying and watch for signs that their child is exhibiting bullying behavior. They will speak to a teacher or administrator if their child is being bullied or they suspect that their child is bullying others. They will encourage open conversations with adults and encourage their children to tell a responsible adult if they are being bullied or suspect others are bullying. School staff will act as appropriate role models for all staff and students. They will take every precaution to ensure that students are supervised at all times. They will reinforce the message that bullying is not accepted or tolerated. They will be observant of signs of distress or suspected incidents of bullying. The staff will treat all reports or observed incidences of bullying seriously by reporting them immediately the appropriate administrator. The staff will provide and foster an environment where students feel they can speak to staff about their concerns. Please see Anti-bullying/Anti-violence Code of Conduct. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Official warning to stop offending (verbal and written) to the students and parents. A student may be automatically suspended from school if the act of bullying is considered severe regardless if there have been previous issues. In the case of a serious incident of bullying, parents of both the victim and the student(s) committing the bullying-type behaviour are notified. The parents are informed of the allegations and are also informed about the student's responses to these allegations (verbal and written). If they do not stop engaging in bullying behaviours after any warning from school staff, students will be suspended from school. Students who bully others may face one or more of the following consequences: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Involvement in mediation; • Parents will be contacted by the school; • Recommendation for an out-of-school assessment; • Referral to the community officer; • Privileges will be withdrawn (e.g. exclusion from school, school activities, school services); and • Sanctions outlined in the School's Discipline Policy such as detention and suspension.
Classroom Behaviour	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students will behave in a manner that is conducive to learning and will respect both the school and individual classroom guidelines. School staff will model appropriate classroom behaviour and will monitor and follow up as needed. Parents will be contacted when necessary. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A student who misbehaves in class will be dealt with by the classroom teacher. In the event that a student continues to misbehave and ignores the teacher's interventions they will be referred to an administrator. The student will receive a minimum of one (1) lunch detention unless the teacher indicates differently. If a student is sent out of class more than once in one day, they will receive a school suspension for the rest of the day or the following day. The parents may be contacted by the teacher. If a student persists in misbehaving, a team conference will be held with the student, his/her parents, the behaviour technician, and an administrator. A student who continues to misbehave has placed him/herself at high risk: at this point, the student will be served with an out of school suspension and a meeting will be scheduled with a director.
Completion of Assignments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students will complete assignments to the best of their ability and hand them in as requested by their teachers. Teachers will provide students with sufficient time to complete assignments. Teachers will monitor and keep a record of assignment completion. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A student who does not hand in an assignment on time may be assigned WIN (Work In Now) during lunch in the reflection room. Failure to attend WIN will result in a lunch detention or suspension. A student who continues to not hand in assignments as requested may be assigned an academic suspension.
Dress Code	Students are expected to dress in a professional manner for a place of education. Wear clothing with no references to drugs or alcohol. Wear pants, shorts, and skirts that cover undergarments and buttocks. Wear clothing that covers the chest and midriff. Hats and hoods are to be removed for safety concerns and to show respect. Hats and coats are welcome outside but must be put in your locker once you enter the building (along with your school bags). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If a student does not respect the following guidelines, they will be referred to an administrator. An administrator will talk to the student one-on-one, and if the student's attire violates the dress code, they will be asked to change. If it is a repeated offence concerning a hat, the hat will be kept in the office for the remainder of the day. If the student refuses they will go home or sit in the reflection room for the remainder of the day. The administrator will follow up with the teacher and may contact the parent
Drug or Alcohol Use and the Sale of Drugs or Alcohol	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students will refrain from using and/or trafficking drugs or alcohol at school. Students will not present themselves at school or at school events under the influence of any drug or alcohol. The school Administration reserves the right to perform any search deemed reasonable to ensure the safety of students and staff. Please refer to school board policy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A student who is caught either under the influence, in possession, or trafficking drugs or alcohol will be suspended for 10 school days (8 days OSS and 2 days ISS). The police will be involved if the students are in possession of drugs. Parents will be notified. A re-entry meeting with parents, administration and a Director will be held after the suspension. The school Drug and Alcohol Counsellor will follow up with the student upon his/her return to school. A student who is caught trafficking drugs or with a quantity of drugs deemed to be for the purpose of sale, will be suspended for 10 school
